PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

THURSDAY, JANUARY 31

1:00 – 1:50 PM

University of Memphis Bandmasters Competition Meeting

Chattanooga Room, Marriott

The Bandmasters Championship is coming up on our 50th year and we are needing your input! We feel that the West Tennessee Schools are our base and we would like your opinion on making the contest better. Items to be discussed: Format (one shot vs Prelim/ Finals), Judging, Class Sizes/splits, Venue, Awards, and other topics that relate to the event. Our contest committee will be meeting in February to make changes from the previous year and this will help guide us in making decisions concerning the future of the event.

Jeremy Stinson

2:00 – 2:45

A Few Tunes to Try

Nashville Room, Marriott

The focus of this clinic will be to provide a review of quality band music that will assist in developing musicianship skills and is suitable for festival performance. Special emphasis will be on both "forgotten gems" (written from 1950-1990) as well as more contemporary works appropriate for secondary school bands at the Grade 2-4 performance level.

Elva Kaye Lance
Director of Bands
Mississippi State University

Dr. Craig Aarhus
Associate Director of Bands
Mississippi State University

2:50 – 3:35

Using Finale Notepad Music Software in the Classroom

Chattanooga Room, Marriott

Teachers will learn how to use Notepad Finale Music Software with their students in the following ways: 1. Basic piano notation with added lyrics. 2. Transposing an obbligato from a C instrument to a non-C instrument. 3. Arranging four-part music for a string quartet and brass quartet. 4. Creating original compositions within specific guidelines.

For a hands-on experience, teachers should download the free program from finalemusic.com to their laptops and bring them to the session. Under "products" select "Notepad" for the free download.*

Dr. Sheryl Lane
Orchestra/Piano Teacher
Kingsbury High School

6:30 – 8:00

Away with the old and in with the New:

Ballroom C, Cannon Center

The first new music reading session you will attend this year!

The music educator's search for quality music should not exclude recently composed music. The responsibility of furnishing quality music should not be diminished because the music is unfamiliar or employs non-traditional techniques. Techniques for selecting literature with an approach to quality will be explained and a brief synopsis of each piece will be given before a performance of the piece. All literature selected for this reading session are provided by AMRO Music and Shattinger Music and are not currently on the TBA Concert Band Music State List. Bring your horn and be a part of the total musical experience.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1

8:00 – 8:45 AM

Dancing the Music: A Methodology for the Development of Expressivity in Conducting

Nashville Room, Marriott

Expressivity in conducting is a concept that is desired and lauded though its development is both mysterious and elusive. As performers, conductors have much in common with both the dance and theatre arts. Through the study and application of Laban Movement Theory and Mime, conductors can develop a methodology for the creation and development of expressive gestures that will both expedite the rehearsal process and result in more musical performances.

Dr. John Oelrich
Director of Bands
University of Tennessee Martin

8:50 – 9:35

SE. A Preparing for College: Advice for Future College Trumpet Students

Nashville Room, Marriott

I recently wrote an article for the Instrumentalist Magazine (September 2012) that focused on common weaknesses in the playing of freshmen trumpet majors. My presentation will present the results of a trumpet teacher poll that I conducted to determine those problems and offer advice on how to correct them. I maintain that observing a daily routine of fundamentals is vital to identify and target weaknesses.

Dr. Anthony B. Kirkland
Assistant Professor of Trumpet
Mississippi State University

SE. B Keeping Students Engaged and Interested in Strings by Incorporating Fiddle Playing into Classical Orchestra

Chattanooga Room, Marriott

Join Ryan in finding new ways to involve your students on another level in class not only with classical music, or what some would call violin music, but also with fiddle music – both of which are incredibly rich, engaging, challenging, and inspiring.

Ryan Joseph
Eastman String Clinic
Sponsored by Amro Music

9:40 – 11:10

Conducting Outside of the Pattern: Techniques and Strategies to “Look” More Like the Music

Ballroom C, Cannon Center

Regardless of any ensembles' playing ability, it is important for conductors to visually support the artistic nuances contained within the music performed. Doing so not only enhances the musical experience but is also an essential part of the communication between the conductor and the ensemble. Utilizing the Holst Suite in E Flat, this clinic will address basic strategies to help free conductors “from the pattern” and assist in the creative development of more musically informed and communicative gestures.

University of Memphis Wind Ensemble

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1

2:00 – 2:45

SE. A The Middle School Jazz Combo: What, How, When and Why it's Beneficial for Your Students and Program

Nashville Room, Marriott

As one of America's only original art forms, Jazz is a fundamental part of all music curricula. The cultivation of Jazz's inherent skill set - improvisation, communication, and interaction - can greatly benefit the individual student musician as well as pay long term dividends for all facets of the school band program.

Dr. John Oelrich
Director of Bands
University of Tennessee Martin

SE. B Tips for Arranging (or Re-Arranging) for Your Marching Band

Chattanooga Room, Marriott

Clifton Taylor and Jason Baker have worked together since 2005, crafting marching band arrangements for regional high schools and the Mississippi State University Famous Maroon Band. Their presentation will share tips to aid budding wind and percussion arrangers in producing solid, performable charts. Non-arranging directors will also receive tips for evaluating the quality and suitability of others' arrangements.

Dr. Clifton Taylor
Associate Director of Bands
Mississippi State University

Dr. Jason Baker
Director of Percussion Studies
Mississippi State University

2:50 – 3:35

SE. A Implementing Regular Student Practice and Progress Using SmartMusic

Nashville Room, Marriott

Mr. Marchese will provide an overview of SmartMusic software, and discuss how it's been used by band students all over America to accelerate their progress. You'll learn how to use this tool to direct and capture regular student practice at your school. We'll examine how SmartMusic is also used as a testing and assessment tool and provides automatic record-keeping. Mr. Marchese will show you how to create a virtual class, enroll students, and get started.

Larry Marchese
Make Music Inc.

SE. B How to Address the Common Weaknesses Found in the Developing High School Clarinet Student

Chattanooga Room, Marriott

Robyn will identify the common problems that many high school clarinet students struggle with, such as lack of dynamic control, incorrect tongue position, collapsed knuckles, and inability to utilize the pinky keys properly. She will present simple and efficient ways of working on these problems with the student, and provide short exercises that focus on each problem. As a way of evaluating how successful the student has been in overcoming each problem, more challenging etudes that deal with the same issues will be suggested.

Robyn Jones
Assistant Professor of Clarinet
University of Memphis

CONCERT ETIQUETTE

GO EASY WITH THE ATOMIZER. MANY PEOPLE ARE HIGHLY ALLERGIC TO PERFUME AND COLOGNE.

IF YOU BRING A CHILD, MAKE SURE THAT ETIQUETTE IS PART OF THE EXPERIENCE.

UNWRAP ALL CANDIES AND LOZENGES BEFORE THE CONCERT BEGINS.

TURN ALL CELL PHONES, BEEPERS AND WATCH ALARMS OFF. ALSO, PLEASE DON'T "JANGLE THE BANGLES".

REMAIN SILENT DURING THE OVERTURE - IT IS PART OF THE PERFORMANCE.

LOVEBIRDS: DO NOT LEAN YOUR HEADS TOGETHER; YOU BLOCK THE VIEW OF THE PERSON BEHIND YOU. LEANING FORWARD ALSO BLOCKS THE VIEW.

DO NOT TALK, HUM, SING ALONG OR BEAT TIME WITH ANY BODY PART.

WAIT FOR A PAUSE OR INTERMISSION BEFORE RIFFLING THROUGH A PURSE, BACKPACK OR OTHER BAGS.

DO NOT LEAVE THE SHOW WHILE IT IS STILL IN PROGRESS (EXCEPT FOR EMERGENCY, OF COURSE).

DO UNTO OTHERS AS YOU WOULD WANT THEM TO DO UNTO YOU.

"... a virtuoso with remarkable control and power... who shows that though Miles Davis died in 1991, his unbounded soul will inspire for years to come." New York Times

By the age of 12, Tanya Darby was already expressing the elements of a mature jazz player and annually performed at the Monterey Jazz Festival. Tanya received her Bachelor's degree in Jazz Performance from the Manhattan School of Music where she received various awards including the Jon Faddis Award in Musical Excellence for Most Promising Jazz Trumpet Talent of the Year. She gained notoriety for her soulful style and began freelancing throughout the New York metropolitan area and the world.

Tanya is a current member of the Vanguard Jazz Orchestra, The Roy Hargrove Big Band, The DIVA Jazz Orchestra, and Jimmy Heath's Queens Jazz Orchestra. She has performed and toured with artists and ensembles including Clark Terry, Jon Faddis, Paquito D'Riviera, Gladys Knight, Frank Foster, Bill Cosby, Michel Camilo, Slide Hampton, Dianne Reeves, The Count Basie Orchestra, The Duke Ellington Orchestra, The Mingus Band, George Gruntz, Rufus Reid, and the Cab Calloway Orchestra. She has appeared on the television show "BET on Jazz" as part of the T.S. Monk Sextet and performed with Aretha Franklin as part of the Arista Records Twenty-Five Year Anniversary Special on NBC.

Tanya regularly performs clinics, master classes, and workshops internationally. She is currently an adjunct professor of trumpet at Temple University and an instructor and supervisor for the New York Pops Salute to Music, Create a Symphony, and Rhythm Rhyme and Rap education programs.

Tanya can be heard on numerous recordings including Grammy award winning artists Amy Winehouse and Joss Stone. Recordings also include Grammy nominated recording artists: Vanguard Jazz Orchestra, Bobby Sanabria, and DIVA. Tanya also recorded the soundtracks for Showtime's original series The L Word, Ann Hampton Calloway Blues in the Night, Anat Cohen Noir, Maurice Hines To Nat King Cole with Love, and various commercial studio works.

Rodney Whitaker is one of the world's renowned double bass performers, educators, mentors and is dedicated to inspiring and growing the next generation of jazz educators and musicians. A Detroit native, he grew up in the city soaking in the sounds of jazz and classical music and working with the finest musicians in the city. Building on his Detroit roots and enormous talent, Whitaker went on to earn an international reputation as one of the world's finest jazz double bass performers. He completed a seven-year tenure as bassist with the Wynton Marsalis' Sextet, the

Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra and has toured the world over the last twenty-six years, collaborating with over 100+ legendary performing jazz artists such as Dianne Reeves, Hank Jones, Mulgrew Miller, Junko Onishi, Yutaka Shiina, Kenny Burrell, Diana Krall, John Lewis, Kathleen Battle, Marian McPartland, Wycliffe Gordon, Kenny Garrett, Bradford Marsalis, Bob James, Roy Hargrove, Jon Carl Hendricks, Tommy Flanagan, Frank

Morgan, Terence Blanchard, Betty "Be-Bop" Carter, Chick Corea, and leading symphony orchestras across the world—just to name a few. In addition, he has appeared and presented master classes at the International Association of Jazz Educators (IAJE) conferences. Featured on more than 100+ recordings - from film to compact discs - Whitaker's film scores, China, directed by Jeff Wray, was released on PBS Fall 2002 and Malaria and Malawi, released on PBS Fall 2010. Also, Whitaker has a DVD release featuring Michigan State University's Jazz Department entitled, "Inside Jazz" and three new compact discs entitled, "Get Ready" & "Work To Do"—both on Mack Avenue Records and "Better Than Alright" by Michigan State University College of Music. In 2011, he was nominated for an EMMY for the 'Original Music' category, "Malawi and Malaria: Fighting to Save the Children" produced by Robert Gould and Sue Carter. Whitaker collaborated with musicians Phil Dwyer and Alan Jones on "Let Me Tell You About My Day," produced by Alma Records and was nominated for a Juno Award in 2006 for Traditional Jazz Album of the Year, Canada's equivalent to the United State of America's Grammy. He is a full professor of jazz double bass and director of jazz studies at Michigan State University where he has built one of the leading jazz degree granting programs offering both a bachelor's and master's degrees in Jazz Performance.

Sandy Morris has directed orchestras, bands, and choirs in Chattanooga for over 30 years. She received a Bachelor of Science degree in Music Education from Ball State University as well as a Master of Music degree in Music Education and a Master of Music degree in Conducting from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. Sandy has done graduate work in conducting and string pedagogy at the University of Iowa, Orchestral Institute of America, and the University of Wisconsin at Madison, and has attended workshops sponsored by the League of American Orchestras, Conductors' Guild, and the Waterville Valley (NH) Music Center. Her conducting teachers have included Steven Bird, William Larue Jones, Marvin Rabin, and Kenneth Kiesler.

Sandy retired from her position of Director of Strings at Center for Creative Arts after 33 years in Hamilton County, but remains a very active member of the musical community. She is in her 15th season as Conductor of the Chattanooga Youth Philharmonic and Signal Mountain Playhouse Orchestra as well as Music Director for Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. She has been selected numerous times as a Governor's School for the Arts Outstanding Teacher as well as Who's Who Among America's Teachers. Her school orchestras received superior ratings at the regional concert festival and participated in the State Concert Festival. Sandy is active as a clinician and adjudicator, and is All State Orchestra Chair for the Tennessee Music Education Association. Her memberships include: the National Association for Music Education, East Tennessee School Band and Orchestra Association, American String Teachers Association/NSOA, NEA-Retired, Chattanooga Area Flute Society, American Federation of Musicians Local 80, and Sigma Alpha Iota.

Raised in the Finger Lakes region of upstate New York, Bridgid Bibbens began violin lessons at the tender age of three. She attended Syracuse University, where she earned her bachelor's degree in violin and oboe performance and her master's degree in music education. She has performed with major artists in the rock, pop and jazz worlds, such as Christina Aguilera, Mary J Blige, Jay-Z, John Mayer, Alicia Keys, the Trans-Siberian Orchestra, Tommy Lee, Gilby Clarke, Johnny Colt, Josh Groban, Harry Connick, Jr. and Frank Sinatra, Jr. Television appearances include NBC's Today Show, the CBS Early Show, The Late Show with David Letterman, and a special broadcast for New York City's PBS affiliate. She's played to sold-out audiences in major venues throughout the US, including Madison Square Garden and Boston's Banknorth Garden. She's also performed with Mark Wood and the Mark Wood Experience on numerous occasions, including a video for PBS and performances at the 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2012 NAMM shows in Anaheim, CA. Bridgid was also recently featured in an interview with Guitar World magazine and has been featured in ads for Bugera amps in Guitar World, Guitar Player, Guitar Legends, and several other magazines.

In the role of educator, Bridgid directed public school orchestra programs in upstate New York and Boston for over 10 years. Her students have consistently performed at the highest level in state competitions and solo adjudications. Her orchestras have been invited to perform in such prestigious venues as Boston's Symphony Hall and the Schoenbrunn Palace in Vienna, Austria. Her students performed in the same hall where a young Mozart premiered his opera The Impresario.

This is Martin Picuch's 2nd appearance as guest conductor of the Tennessee All-West Orchestra. He just completed his 17th tour of Russia, with his 3rd appearance at the Int'l Festival of the Asian Pacific Countries at Krasnoyarsk. In 2005, he debuted as guest conductor of the St. Petersburg Philharmonic, boldly conducting Liebermann's Concerto for Jazz Band and Symphony. Named Permanent Guest Conductor of the Moscow Philharmonic, and also conducted the symphony and opera orchestras of Archangelsk, Khabarovsk, Omsk, Yuzhno-Sakhalinsk Yakutsk and Vladivostok, Russia; Seoul, Korea; Graz, Austria; the Czech Republic; Vogtland, Germany; New Haven, CT, and Wolf Trap, Virginia. Russia's Ministry of Culture presented him the Bronze Medal. He was the Music Director/Conductor of Washington Symphony for 9 years. Crowning his tenure with WSO he produced an international orchestra with musicians from the WSO, Bobuslav Martinu Orchestra from Zlin, Czech Republic, and Ukraine Radio/TV Orchestra in a 21-concert tour of Germany and Austria. In the Russian Far East he led the first playing ever of Stravinsky's Firebird. Kennedy Center debut in 1996: world premiere of Lan Ying, the first of 9 collaborations with Sage Director Elizabeth Falk, whom he married in 2001.

This native of Maine won the position of Saxophone Soloist, U. S. Marine Band, at 18. He holds a Bachelor of Music Degree in each woodwind, Summa Cum Laude, and a Master's Degree in Orchestral Conducting from Catholic U. of America. He was Founder/ Director of Washington Woodwind & Saxophone Quartet, guest flutist at Kennedy Center and Carnegie Hall, and from 1963-92 Saxophone Soloist with the National Symphony Orchestra under conductors Copland, Dorati and Rudell. He has accompanied Beverly Sills, Henry Mancini, Dinah Shore, Johnny Mathis, Anthony Newley. Served on the faculties of St. Mary's College, Howard U. and Catholic U. Mra. Picuch is impressed with the quality of the music education in Memphis and proud of his son Christopher who conducts the band program at Overton HS and plays with Memphis Symphony.

CHESTER MCKINNEY

Chester McKinney was born June 7, 1943 in Whiteville, Tennessee. He is the 10th out of 11 children born to Henry and Emma McKinney. Soon after his birth, his family moved to Jackson.

Chester was educated in the Jackson public schools and developed an interest in music at an early age. He played the trumpet in Merry High School band and after high school he studied other brass instruments. Mr. McKinney attended Tennessee A & I State University in Nashville where he majored in Music Education. He graduated with a B.S in Music Education in 1965 and in 1972 received his Masters degree in Music Education.

Mr. McKinney has 42 years of teaching experience. He taught band for 3 years at Rosenwald High School in Trenton, 5 years in Camden, New Jersey, 27 years in Jackson Public Schools, 1 year part time at Caywood Middle in Lexington, and 6 years part time at Bemis Intermediate School in Jackson.

Mr. McKinney is now retired, working in his church and playing trombone in a local Jazz/R&B band in Jackson, Tennessee.

JAMES GODSEY

James Monroe Godsey was born in Richie, Maryland on January 12, 1935 and was raised in Haleyville, Alabama. He graduated high school in Florence, Alabama and attended Murray State College where he received a Bachelor of Music Education and later a Masters of Music Education.

In 1955 he married Nancy Joan Reaves. They made their home in Dyersburg, Tennessee where he was the band director for 28 years. In 1983, the Dyersburg High School Band was awarded the Grand National Championship at the Northeast Mississippi Jr. College contest in Booneville, MS. While in Dyersburg, he taught in the choral department at Dyersburg State Community College for a number of years. He was the organist and choir director at the First Presbyterian Church and was the choral teacher at Dyersburg High School. Mr. Godsey was the founder of the Dyersburg Little Theatre, which endured a 21 year span of musicals for the community. Jim was the creator of the Dyersburg High School Marching band Contest which 38 years later is known as the Annual Jim Godsey Symphony of Sound Marching Band Contest.

In 1986, he went to Obion County High School where he was the band director for 6 more years. During this time, his bands won countless honors and traveled all over the country. Obion Central High School Band went to claim the Single A State Championship in 1992, which is among his highest honors.

Jim Godsey died in 1993 at the age of 58 after a battle with cancer. He taught up to 6 weeks prior to his death with his wishes fulfilled of finishing the last band camp he would attend in August 1993.

He was a husband of Nancy Godsey and father of Debbie Godsey Randolph and Millette Godsey Gathright. He is a grandfather of 5 grandchildren and a great-grandfather of 3 boys with 2 more boys on the way in June.

KARLA PHILIPP

Karla Philipp holds the B.M. in Music Education from the University of Arizona, and the M.M. in Double Bass performance from Memphis State University (now the University of Memphis). An active performer, she has performed with the Tucson Symphony, the Arizona Light Opera, the Memphis Symphony, the Tupelo Symphony and is currently in the Jackson, TN Symphony. In addition, she is a freelance performer in the Memphis area.

Ms. Philipp is a 1998 recipient of the Rotary Award for Teacher Excellence. She is also a three time recipient of the Outstanding Teacher Award from the Governor's School for the Arts. Karla has had the privilege of doing clinics, summer music camps and workshops around the country including the American Suzuki Institute in Stevens Point Wisconsin, and the Intermountain Suzuki String Institute in Salt Lake City, Utah.

In 2009 Karla retired after 30 years of teaching strings for the Memphis City Schools. She is currently the conductor of two Memphis Youth Symphony Program Orchestras, the Memphis Youth String Ensemble and the Memphis Youth String Sinfonia. She maintains a private studio of double bass players. She is also the director of the Calvary Ringers, the handbell choir at Calvary Episcopal Church in downtown Memphis. In addition she is an adjunct instructor in music education at the University of Memphis where she teaches the strings method class and supervises student teachers.

GREG STOVER

Greg Stover is an accomplished musician and teacher who began his career in music in 1961 in the public schools of Memphis, TN. He was a member of the Georgian Hill Junior High and Frayser High School Bands. At the age of 15, Greg began performing in numerous garage and club bands in the Memphis and Arkansas areas. By his senior year, Greg was serving as Director of the ROTC Band and was selected as the official drummer for the Memphis Cotton Carnival Royalty.

After high school, Greg entered Union University where he studied music under the direction of Dr. Gerald Welker and Mr. Charles Huffman. At Union, Greg performed in both the stage and symphonic bands and was an active member of Phi Mu Alpha and the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternities. He earned his Bachelor of Music degree with a major in Percussion Performance in 1972.

While attending Union University, Greg had the opportunity to perform in backup capacity with many well-known performers including Gary Collins, Mary Ann Mobley, Rosey Greer, and Phyllis George. He was also the warm-up drummer for Ed Shaughnessy of the Tonight Show. For several years, Greg performed with the Glenn Miller Orchestra, the Jimmy Allen Orchestra, and the Miss Tennessee Orchestra.

In 1972, Greg began his teaching career as Assistant Director at Ripley High School. Two years later, he transferred to McNairy Central High School where he taught for 5 years. In 1979, he accepted a position at Humboldt High School where he remained for 23 years. Greg was an active member of MENC, TMEA, WTSBOA, and NEA. While at Humboldt, his band was selected to perform at the TMEA Conference where he was awarded the Citation of Excellence by the TBA.

Under his direction, Greg's bands consistently earned superior ratings at concert festivals and marching competitions, and he always had student in the All-West and All-State Honor Bands. One of Greg's greatest accomplishments was the many students he taught. This included two of his nephews, who have chosen careers as band directors.

David East holds a bachelor's degree in music education from the University of Mississippi and a master's degree in music education from Mississippi State University.

He has been a band director for 33 years. He began his teaching career at Houston Junior High School in 1979. In 1984, he became Director of Bands at Amory High School. Under his direction, the Amory High School Band received superior ratings for an eleven year span. In 1995, he became Director of Bands at Itawamba Community College where he remained until accepting his current position at Lamar Co. High School. During his tenure at ICC, the band membership grew from 161 to 269. The band program in Vernon, Alabama, has grown from 101 to 170 and has consistently received superior ratings in concert and marching festivals.

Mr. East's professional memberships include, Northeast Mississippi Band Directors Association, Phi Beta Mu, Alabama Bandmasters Association, and Music Educators National Conference. He has also served as an officer for the Northeast Mississippi Junior High and High School Band Association and is serving his fourth year on the Alabama Bandmasters Governing Board as District III Chairman.

Aside from directing band, Mr. East is actively involved in many other music related fields. He presides as Conductor for the Stars Over Mississippi Jazz Orchestra and serves as manager and trombone musician of the Tupelo Symphony Orchestra. He also directs the Amory First United Methodist Church Adult Choir.

Mr. East and his wife Donna reside in Amory, Mississippi. They have two children. Their daughter Leslie works as a social worker for the North Mississippi Regional Center, and their son Stephen serves in the USAF.

Tim Matlock currently serves as the director of bands for the Tupelo Public Schools District. He is a native Memphian and a graduate of Watkins Overton High School. He holds a Bachelor in Music Education from the University of Mississippi. Tim is a percussion instructor for Northeast Mississippi and teaches several lessons to students within the area. He has taught with Drum Corp International with groups such as Phantom Legion, Capital Regiment and Memphis Sound Drum and Bugle Corp.

Tim is also a member of the Tupelo Symphony and serves on the judging panel for several state functions. Mr. Matlock is a member of the Mississippi Bandmasters Association, National Band Association and Phi Beta Mu. He is a past president of the Northeast Mississippi Junior High Band Directors Association, Kappa Kappa Psi, and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.

He has received awards such as the Who's Who Among American Teachers, Teacher of Distinction and the George Henry Schultz Outstanding Band Director for Northeast Mississippi. His drum line is currently ranked in the top three in the state. They have won numerous championships, including a state championship and Southeast ColorGuard Circuit Class Champ.

Tim's concert bands have consistently produced superior ratings at both the Middle and High School level in such places as Chicago, Washington D.C., Orlando, San Antonio, St. Louis, Atlanta and at home in Mississippi.

Susan D. Creasap is in her 17th year as Associate Director of Bands/ Professor of Music at Morehead State University where she directs the University Marching Band, Concert Band, and teaches courses in music education. Creasap earned her Doctor of Arts in Wind Band Conducting/Horn Performance from Ball State University, Master of Arts in Music Education/Music History from the University of Minnesota, and Bachelor of Science in Music Education from Indiana University of Pennsylvania. She taught band at all levels including the public schools of Meadville, Pennsylvania and Memphis, Tennessee, and was Director of Bands at Clarion University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Creasap is a Research Associate for all volumes of the acclaimed Teaching Music Through Performance in Band and Teaching Music Through Performance in Beginning Band series. Her numerous presentations at state and national conferences include the Kentucky Music Educators Association In-Service Conference and The Midwest Clinic. In 2009 the Indiana Bandmasters Association established the Indiana All-State Junior High Band, Dr. Creasap was chosen as its first conductor.

Dr. Creasap is the recipient of the Kentucky Music Educators Association 2004 College/University Teacher of the Year, the National Band Association "Citation of Excellence," the Tennessee Bandmasters Association "Award of Excellence," and the Women Band Directors International "Silver Baton." She serves as an officer or board member for WBDI, KMEA/NAfME, and NBA and is a member of CBDNA, Delta Omicron, Pi Kappa Lambda, Phi Beta Mu, Tau Beta Sigma and Kappa Kappa Psi. In her spare time she founded STAR, Saving the Animals of Rowan, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to rescuing dogs from the county dog pound. Morehead State University honored her with its "Community Engagement Award" (2006) for her work with this group. She and her husband, John Hennen, have three dogs and two cats - rescues of course!

Mr. John Graham, a native of Little Rock, received his undergraduate degree in Music Education and a Master's Degree from the University of Central Arkansas. He has done further study at Arkansas Tech University, University of Memphis, University of Arkansas at Little Rock, Northeastern University, and the University of Colorado Boulder.

In 1994, Mr. Graham began his service as Director of Bands at the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff. He oversees two concert bands, the UAPB Wind Symphony, and the 280 piece marching band, known as "The Marching Musical Machine of the Mid-South." Prior to coming to UAPB, he served as Director of Bands at Parkview High School, Little Rock Central High School, McClellan High School, and North Chicago Community High School.

Mr. Graham has been featured as a Clinician and Judicator throughout the country. His professional affiliations include memberships in the Arkansas School Band and Orchestra Association, the College Band Directors National Association, the Music Education National Conference, College Band Directors National Association, Historically Black College- National Band Directors Consortium, Phi Mu Alpha, Southwest District Governor Kappa Kappa Psi, and Tau Beta Sigma National Honorary Band Music Sorority.

Professor John R. Graham is married to Laura A. Graham. They reside in Pine Bluff, have three children and three grandchildren, and are members of St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church where he serves as a Deacon, Sunday school teacher, and member of the Chancel Choir and the Male Chorus.

Dr. James L. Tully, is the founding director of the Coastal Carolina University Bands, where he is conductor of the Symphonic Band and Coastal Winds. He was director of the CCU Marching Band from 2003-2011 and continues to serve in creative and teaching capacities for that group.

He holds the B.M. in music education and M.M. in wind band conducting from West Virginia University, and the Doctor of Education degree from the University of Memphis. Prior to 2000, Tully had an 11 year career leading successful band programs in Tennessee, Mississippi and South Carolina. Secondary school bands under his direction have appeared at such events as Bands of America and state and regional conferences. At Coastal, the CCU Marching Band has performed at Bands of America Fall Preview, and The Coastal Winds has been the featured collegiate ensemble at the South Carolina Music Educator's Conference.

Tully is a frequent guest conductor and adjudicator throughout the nation. He is published in journals such as Teaching Music and The Educational Forum. He has been a presenter at various conferences of the College Band Directors National Association. He has been a participant in the University of North Texas Conductors Collegium and is the recipient of the National Band Association's Citation of Excellence.

Tully is a member of Phi Beta Mu, World Association of Symphonic Bands & Ensembles, National Band Association, and Music Educators National Conference. He is chair of the South Carolina chapter of the College Band Directors National Association and is a former member of the South Carolina Band Directors Association Executive Board.

Concerts led by Frederick Speck have earned praise as, "Un tour de force enorme" (Miguel Etchegoncelay, Argentina), "ein Konzert der Superlative" (Peter Bucher, Switzerland) and "assertive musicality and powerful precision" (Chris Woodruff, USA). Also a composer, the New York Times cited his work as, "vivid, driven music." His music has been performed by such ensembles as the Louisville Orchestra, the Denver Symphony, the Senzoku Gakuen Wind Ensemble, the Eastman Wind Ensemble and Speculum Musicae, and recorded by such artists as Richard Stoltzman, Paul York, Brett Shuster and the Washington Winds.

Twice the recipient of the University of Louisville President's Award for Outstanding Scholarship, Research and Creativity, his work has also been recognized through fellowships and commissions from the Barlow Endowment, the National Endowment for the Arts, the Indiana Arts commission and the Pennsylvania Council for the Arts.

He teaches at the University of Louisville, where he is the Director of Bands, conducting the Wind Ensemble and New Music Ensemble.
