

WTSBOA Meeting Minutes, Orchestra Clinic Jan. 21, 2006
GPAC

The meeting was called to order by David Wood at 8:48 a.m.

The minutes were read and approved.

The treasurer's report was given by Darrel Evans, the balance at this time was $24,797.84. Orchestra/Jazz Clinic expenses yet to be paid.

David Wood, please contact Derek Cook as soon as possible if directors have students not able to attend the band clinic.

Barry Lumpkin offered directors CDs at a discount rate.

Next year Orchestra Clinic: will try to keep the orchestras on stage and black box and the jazz band in rooms in the Germantown Center.

David Wood reminded directors that they must attend two meetings this year in order for their students to participate in all events. Please make sure you have signed in.

David Wood will present a motion at the May meeting that All West results will not be official until posted on your web site the following Monday. At each of the audition events all Directors will be asked to stay and double check the results and folders at the end of the day to avoid problems.

Sheryl Lane asked that all stands be returned to Memphis City Schools after the Orchestra Clinic. Sheryl thanked everyone for helping with this event..

Francie Beard, need list of students' phone numbers and medical info. David Wood said this would be addressed.

David Wood expressed the need to have our clinics publicized. We will try to set up a person to help with this.

David Wood suggested for next year to have all executive secretary treasurer duties, all web site duties, CD recording duties, and collecting money to one position. Barry Lumpkin was suggested for this position.

Darrell reminded band directors that the band clinic is last time to submit scores, please follow procedures on web for submitting.

Jeff Huddleston reminded directors that only chairs, stands, and vibes, are provided at the Jazz Clinic; everything else must be provided by students. Jeff will try to get the All State Jazz results posted by Jan. 30th.

Chris Picuch announced that Jamie Young is hosting a band contest on Mar 4th, "Playing for the Cure" which will also include a solo competition for band and strings at Wooddale Middle School.

Meeting was adjourned at 9:07.
