

High-Risk School Status

Application Form - Due no later than 7a.m. the morning of auditions

Article VIII, section 7 High Risk Schools

- A. A director at a school as defined by the Department of Education as a Title I school can designate the school as High-Risk.
- B. There will be five slots added to the Middle And High School All-West Bands and 2 violin spots in the Middle School String orchestra, High School Honor String Orchestra and High School Symphony Orchestra. There will be only one slot for each of the following instruments: flute, clarinet, trumpet, trombone and percussion.
- C. If a High-Risk school has a student in one of the bands or orchestras by the regular audition process, then that school will not be eligible for a slot. A school can receive only one slot. The student with the highest score among the High-Risk applicants in each instrument will be given the slot.
- D. The list of recipients of the High Risk slots will be emailed to appropriate directors one week after the audition.”
