Originally from Memphis, Tennessee, trumpeter, composer and arranger Bill Mobley moved to New York City in 1987 and has since become a fixture in the city's flourishing jazz scene. His sideman credits include New York performances with James Williams, Geoff Keezer, Mingus Dynasty Band, the Maria Schneider Orchestra, and the Toshiko Akiyoshi Orchestra, the Pete McGuinness Jazz Orchestra, the NuYorkestra, and CTA to name a few, as well as smaller groups led by Marvin "Smitty" Smith, George Coleman, and T. S. Monk among others. He has recorded 3 big band CDs as leader and arranger in New York for Spacetime Records as well as 4 other small group records for Spacetime as leader. For 3 and 1/2 years he was director of the Smoke Big Band on Monday nights at Smoke Jazz Club in Manhattan where his latest big band CD was recorded live by Spacetime. Numerous other recordings as sideman are in Bill's credits, which include CDs by Geoff Keezer (2), Alan Dawson, Bill Pierce, James Williams, Bill Easley, Jean Toussaint, Gary Morgan and Panamericana, Public Enemy, Little Maestros, Harold Mabern, Donald Brown (4), Pete McGuinness Jazz Orchestra(2), Mike Kaplan nonet, Chuck Braman Quintet, and B.D. Lenz. Bill has taught in the Music Dept. of William Paterson U. in New Jersey for the last eight years where he has students in Ear Training, Ensembles, and Private lessons.

Rodney Jordan is a native of Memphis, Tennessee where he grew up playing the bass in church and with his Westwood High School Orchestra. He later studied music with Dr. London Branch, Alvin Fielder, and Andy Hardwick at Jackson State University in Jackson, Mississippi. In his college years, Jordan joined the Mississippi Symphony Orchestra where he served as Assistant Principal Bassist. After graduating, he became Chair of the String Department at the Dougherty County Public School System and served as Principal Bassist with the Albany Symphony Orchestra in Albany, GA. Teaching has always been an important part of Mr. Jordan's life and career. In addition to teaching strings in Dougherty County, he also taught in the DeKalb County School Systems in Atlanta, Georgia, Darton College (part of the University System of Georgia) in Albany and at Georgia State University in Atlanta. While living in Atlanta, Jordan became one of the city's most active jazz bassists, performing and recording with some of America's finest jazz musicians, including Marcus Printup, Mulgrew Miller, James Williams, Milt Jackson, George Coleman, and Russell Gunn. He joined the faculty in the School of Music at Florida State University in Tallahassee, FL in 2001 where he now holds a rank of Associate Professor of Jazz Studies. Jordan teaches jazz bass, jazz combo playing, music education classes, and jazz styles and analysis.

Recent performances include: Wigmore Hall with the Marcus Roberts trio in London, England; The Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts with Rene Marie in Washington DC and The Monterey Jazz Festival with the Scotty Barnhart Band in Monterey, California. Recent recordings include: Across the Imaginary Divide with Bela Fleck and the Marcus Roberts Trio- Pivot-Melvin Jones/Turnaround Records 2011, Celebrating Christmas-The Marcus Roberts Trio/2011, Higher Ground with the Marcus Roberts Trio -Live from Lincoln Center 2005; Black lace Freudian Slip, Voice of My Beautiful Country-Motema Records 2011, Experiment in Truth- Independent Release 2007 with Rene Marie; Say It Plain with Scotty Barnhart-Unity Music 2009; Keep it Simple with Curtis Fuller - High Note Records 2005; When Cooler Heads Prevail with Bill Anshell - Summit Records 2002 and Ethnomusicology Volume 1 with Russell Gunn - Atlantic Records 1999 which received a Grammy nomination for best contemporary jazz recording in 2000.

Sarah Angeles conducts the Philharmonic Orchestra at Dorman High School and teaches strings at Anderson Mill Elementary, and Jesse Bobo Elementary. In addition to her duties she travels to all of the middle schools in the district to assist and work with students. She joined the District Six faculty in 2011. Previous to working in Spartanburg, Ms. Angeles worked nine years at the High school and Middle School level in Las Vegas, Nevada. In addition to her public school teaching in Las Vegas, Ms. Angeles taught the String Methods class at the University of Las Vegas and directed one of the Las Vegas Youth Orchestras for five years. After having her first son Jacob Dean she moved to Columbia, SC where she taught at a brand new middle school building the string program from a part time position to a full time position in four years.

Ms. Angeles earned her Bachelor's Degree in music education from Loyola University in New Orleans under the mentorship of her father, Professor Dean Angeles, a nationally recognized music educator and all-state conductor. She earned her Master's Degree in applied performance from the University of Las Vegas. Her professional affiliations include the National Association for Music Educators as well as the South Carolina Music Educators Association. She has done several clinics in the South Carolina area for fellow colleagues. She conducted the 2015 Charleston Region Orchestra and has been a concert festival judge for the Midlands Area. As well as doing clinics, Ms Angeles has done summer time work both abroad and in the states. For three years she assisted her father Dean Angeles with the Belgium Music and Sports Camp. She taught five summers for the Columbia, SC Tri-District Arts Camp. She taught one summer for the Madison, WI summer camp. This past summer 2016 she and her father presented their string methods clinic down in Brazil for an International Music Education Conference.

She played professionally for two years with the Las Vegas Philharmonic and currently plays with civic ensembles in Asheville, NC. Throughout the summers Ms Angeles continues her higher education, attends conducting/string workshops, and helps direct the district summer camps in the Spartanburg area.

In her personal time she and her husband enjoy raising their two young sons, Jacob Dean and Maxwell Morton.

Mary Ann Hughes teaches 5th grade beginning strings and serves as the Orchestra Director at Princess Anne High School (PAHS), in Virginia Beach, Virginia. During her 20-year career at PAHS, the program has expanded from one to three orchestras, and the PAHS Chamber Orchestra is the top performing orchestra in SE Virginia. Mrs. Hughes is the founder and director of MultiCell and Strings on Fire. She taught Summer Strings in Virginia Beach for 10 years and directed the first Summer Chamber Music Institute in 2016.

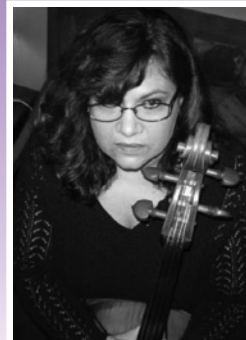

Mrs. Hughes was one of three candidates selected to conduct the Bay Youth Concert Orchestra performances for the 2016-17 season. She has conducted Regional and All-City events and served as adjudicator for District Orchestra Assessments throughout SE Virginia.

Mrs. Hughes received National Board Teacher Certification in 2011. She has scored submissions for National Board Teacher Certification, worked on revisions for National Board assessments and mentored National Board candidates in Music.

Mrs. Hughes holds a Bachelor's degree in Music Education and a Master's degree in String Pedagogy from The Ohio State University. Mrs. Hughes attended the 2016 Summer Music Educator's Workshop at Carnegie Hall in New York City. She has also attended American String Teachers Association (ASTA) National Conferences. She was the 2014-15 Virginia ASTA's Orchestra Director of the Year.

Mrs. Hughes is a professional cellist, currently principal cellist for Symphonicity, the symphony orchestra of Virginia Beach. She also serves as cellist for various chamber groups. Mrs. Hughes has served as adjunct cello professor at Otterbein and Kenyon colleges in Ohio. She teaches private cello lessons in Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Hughes helped design the new secondary music curriculum for Virginia Beach Schools. Mrs. Hughes was a national workshop leader for The International Baccalaureate Middle Years Programme in Music 2006-2013. She presents Professional Development sessions for Virginia Beach music teachers, as well as cello and teaching workshops throughout the United States. She is a member of Music Educator's National Conference (MENC) and American String Teacher's Association (ASTA). To contact her about clinics, workshops and guest conducting, please e-mail Mrs. Hughes at mahughes@vbschools.com.

Music Director and Conductor Dr. Nancia D'Alimonte founded the NIH Philharmonia 11 years ago in Bethesda, MD. She recently completed her debut season as Artistic Director of The Arlington Chorale in Arlington, VA, which celebrated its 50th anniversary during the same season. Dr. D'Alimonte serves as Education Programs Consultant for the National Philharmonic. For ten years, she directed the orchestral activities at The George Washington University in Washington, DC. A natural and charismatic educator, she engages her audiences and enriches their experience with lively commentary, historical background, and musical anecdotes.

After electrifying the house as one of the guest conductors of the popular Messiah Sing-along at The Kennedy Center Concert Hall in 2009, 2013 and 2015, Maestra D'Alimonte has been invited this year to lead this beloved annual event. Other guest conducting appearances have included concerts with the "Mihail Jora" Bacau Philharmonic in Romania; the National Chamber Orchestra at Organ Hall in Chisinau, Moldova (sponsored in part by the U.S. Embassy); the Academic State Ballet Theatre Orchestra in St. Petersburg, Russia; the Finger Lakes Symphony Orchestra (NY); the Macon Symphony Orchestra (GA) and Brighton Symphony Orchestra (NY).

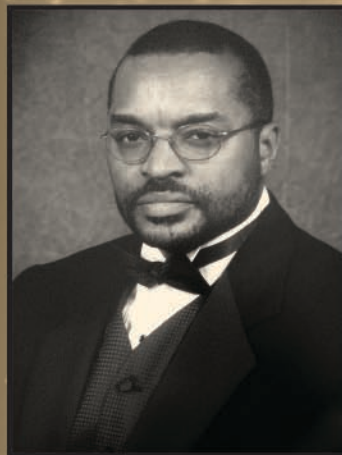

Dr. D'Alimonte earned a Master of Music in horn performance from Ithaca College and holds a Doctorate of Musical Arts in orchestral conducting from the Eastman School of Music, in Rochester, NY, where she studied with Israeli conductor, Maestro Mendi Rodan. Eastman honored her with its prestigious Evan Whallon conducting award.

HALL OF FAME

WTSBOA 2017 HONOREES

JEFFREY LAWRENCE
HUDDLESTON

Jeffrey Huddleston, a noted musician, composer, arranger, performer, clinician, and educator, began his musical career in 7th grade playing alto saxophone in the Greenville Public Schools under the tutelage of his late father and renowned band director, Roy P. Huddleston. Jeff has received numerous superior accolades and awards including "All American" Hall of Fame Honor Band Award, United States Collegiate Wind Band Award, McDonald's All-American High School Band, Who's Who Among Outstanding Students Award. His plan after high school was to attend the college of his choice on a music scholarship.

Jeff Huddleston received his Bachelor of Music Degree from Mississippi Valley State University, Master of Music Composition from the University of Mississippi, and continued postgraduate studies in Jazz from the University of Memphis. At the collegiate levels, Jeff directed the Ole Miss "Collegiate" Jazz Band, the University of Memphis Jazz Ensemble II, and taught private saxophone lessons.

Jeff continued his 29-year music career with Memphis City Schools and Shelby County Schools as Director of Bands at Fairley High School and Director of Jazz Studies at Overton High School. His concert, marching, and jazz bands have performed throughout the country in regional and national festivals receiving "superior" ratings. His jazz bands were in great demand to perform at venues. Prior to Jeff's untimely death, the Overton Jazz Band received national recognition by placing second in the "Swing Central Jazz Festival" in Savannah Music Festival and received national and local recognition. Jeff was inducted into Amro Music Educator Walk of Fame and was a member of WTSBOA where he chaired numerous events including All-State Jazz Festivals. He was also a member of the International Association for Jazz Educators, Jazz Education Network, NAFME, Kappa Kappa Psi, Phi Mu Alpha, and Alpha Phi Alpha and was a "multiple year honoree" for the Who's Who Among American Teachers Award.

Jeff mentored numerous music education students and band directors. When not teaching in the classroom, Jeff's melodious saxophone could be heard with the New Hope Church of Memphis. Also he enjoyed, "Blue Bossa," a jazz combo group he founded that spans the parameters of the jazz idiom. Jeff also performed with The Temptations, The Four Tops, Bobby Rush, Chick Rogers, Free World, Joyce Cobb, and traveled with the Memphis All-Stars Band to perform in the Umbria Jazz Festival and Poretta Jazz Festival in Italy.

LANNY BYRD

A native Memphian, Lanny Byrd's first musical experiences came from listening to the radio and performing on his make shift drum set. After beginning school at South Park Elementary, Mr. Byrd moved to Sherwood Junior High where he played on clarinet in Daryl Henning's band in grades 7-9.

In the fall of 1965 Lanny was a member of the woodwind class at Overton High School where he played bass clarinet under the direction of James Richens. He dropped out of band his junior and senior years at Overton and concentrated on playing drum set in numerous garage and club bands in the area.

While studying at Memphis State University, Lanny performed on drum set with many jazz and popular recording artists including B.J. Thomas, Marvin Stamm and Barry Manilow.

After graduating from Memphis State University in 1973, Lanny began his teaching career the following year by accepting the band director's position at Westwood High School in Memphis. In 1977, Lanny started the Skyview Academy Band Program Lanny and developed award-winning marching, concert and jazz ensembles.

Lanny then served as Director of Bands at Germantown High School from 1985 - 2015. His concert and marching bands received numerous superior ratings and awards throughout his tenure at Germantown HS. Additionally, many of Lanny's students annually earned positions in the All-West and All-State Bands. As the conductor for the Poplar Pike Playhouse Orchestra, Lanny conducted over 420 musical performances and the orchestra won numerous honors at the annual High School Musical Awards. Throughout his career, Lanny also served as a mentor for several of our current WTSBOA Band Directors. His legacy of dedicated service in instrumental music education is deeply embedded in the countless lives that have been influenced throughout his remarkable career.

Mr. Byrd retired from teaching in May 2015 and now spends a lot of quality time with his lovely wife Virginia. They met on a blind date and have been married for forty-one years. They have two daughters: Lanna, an ESL teacher at Knight Road Elementary and Sarah, who works in the advertising department at Comcast. Sarah and her husband Matt Tullos are the excited parents of the family's first grandchild Piper Leigh Tullos.

KAREN HENNING

Throughout her 30-year service in music education, Karen Bowman Henning has taught at numerous West TN schools including Haywood County HS, Jackson Central Merry HS, and Liberty Technology Magnet HS. During her career, Karen's students consistently earned superior ratings and numerous awards at local and national concert festivals, and marching competitions including Chicago, Washington DC, New York, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, Hawaii and Washington DC.

Karen has twice served as WTSBOA President and also on the Tennessee Music Educators Association Board. While WTSBOA President, the Wind Ensemble was formed as the top All-West senior high performing ensemble. She has served as the marching and Jackson site concert festival chair for the past 10 years. Throughout her career, Karen promoted unity in the school district she served by creating opportunities for the Jackson bands to perform together. She mentored and nurtured many novice and seasoned directors. She has served in numerous additional music education capacities including the WTSBOA Marching and Jackson Area Concert Festivals Chair, WTSBOA Jackson Area Solo and Ensemble Chair, All-State representative for WTSBOA, and All-State Band Rehearsal Chair for TMEA. She was also a charter member of Memphis Blues Brass Band Drum and Bugle Corp. Karen currently holds membership in Phi Beta Mu Band Director Fraternity, American School Band Director Association, and Tennessee Bandmaster Association.

Originally from Jackson, TN Karen credits Bill Watson, her high school band director, as being influential in her decision to become a music educator. She holds a Bachelor of Music Degree from Lambuth College and a Master of Music in Music Education from Austin Peay State University. She is currently an adjunct faculty member at Lane College where she teaches Music Appreciation and applied music classes. She also is the Data Coach and Testing Coordinator at Liberty Technology High School. She is a member of the trustee board and youth director at Mother Liberty CME Church. Karen and James Henning have been married for 26 years and have four children, Matthew, Christopher, John, and Cynthia, and three grandchildren: Sophie, Braxton, and Jeremiah. She has served as a clinician and adjudicator in Tennessee, Arkansas, Kentucky, Illinois, and Mississippi. Many of her students have gone on to become band directors and music education teachers, including her son who is a high school band and choir director in Boulder, Montana and her nephew who is a high school director in Jackson, TN.

Linda Gail Davis is a native of Shreveport, La., and in her 33rd year of teaching. Upon graduation from High School, she attended Mississippi Valley State University and earned a Bachelor's Degree in Music Education. She later received a Master's Degree in Instrumental Music Education from the University of Florida in Gainesville, Florida.

Her teaching career began at Brinkley Jr. High School in Jackson, MS. For eleven years, she had a distinguished career as Band Director at Quitman County High School in Marks, MS. She then taught at Oakhurst Middle School (Clarksdale, MS) and later became the Director of Bands for the Clarksdale Municipal School District. During her nine year tenure at Clarksdale High School, her bands earned Superior ratings in Marching and Concert in Mississippi, as well as Texas, Georgia, and Florida. Miss Davis also served as the Director of Bands for the Starkville School District and later became the Director of Bands for the South Panola School District. She retired from South Panola in 2013.

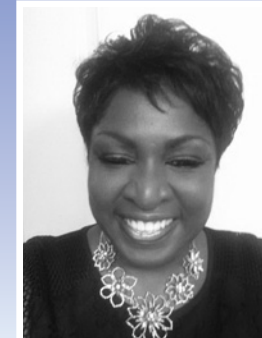

During her long career as a Music Educator, Miss Davis held memberships in the Mississippi Bandmasters Association and served as President of the organization in 2008. She was also a member and Past President of the Delta Chapter of Phi Beta Mu. Other professional memberships included the National Band Association, National Federation of Teachers, and I-55 Band Association. In 2009, Miss Davis was instrumental in reorganizing the Women Band Directors' Association as an attempt to provide mentorship for young female band directors in the State of Mississippi. In 2011, Miss Davis served as the Concert Director of the Mississippi All-State Lions Band. That same year, she was named the NFHS Outstanding Music Educator for the State of Mississippi, as well as one of two for the Phi Beta Mu Outstanding Bandmaster Award.

After retiring, Miss Davis relocated to Lafayette, La., where she taught 5th grade band for three years in the Vermilion Parish School District. She has since returned home to Shreveport and works for the Caddo Parish School Board. Besides teaching, she continues to adjudicate and serve as clinician throughout the South.

Jamie Young is the Director of Bands at the Lake Cormorant High School in Lake Cormorant, Ms. Her current responsibilities including conducting the Symphonic Band, directing the Marching band and administering of the band program. Prior to joining the faculty at Lake Cormorant, Mrs. Young served as a band director in Tennessee and Mississippi where her bands consistently received superior ratings at state and local festivals. She has also served as an Orff Music Specialist in Tennessee.

She is a member of the Mississippi Bandmaster's Association, The I-55 Band Director's Association and the Women's Band Director Association. A native of Grenada, Mississippi, Mrs. Young attended the University of Mississippi where she obtained a Bachelors and Masters Degree in Music Education. Mrs. Young has served the band community by adjudicating at band competitions and solo/ensemble events, serving as a guest conductor for honor bands, spearheading a music competition that served as a lung cancer awareness campaign (Playing for a Cure), and a middle school curriculum writer and advisor. Mrs. Young has performed with several ensembles including the Tupelo Wind Symphony and Jazz Band, The Mississippi Wind Symphony, The New Memphis Hepcats, and The River City Sax Quartet.

In addition to her work as a band director, Mrs. Young is the music director at her church. She is also an advocate for cancer awareness and travels nationally educating and speaking for her cause. Mrs. Young's husband, Jon, is a former band director and her son, Ryan, is a 5th grader in the Desoto County School District.

After a 28-year career as a band director in Mississippi, Jay McArthur is currently in his fourth year as Director of Bands at Choctawhatchee High School in Fort Walton Beach, FL. These twenty-eight years of teaching in Mississippi have included four years in Kosciusko as the junior high school band director, thirteen years in Quitman as the Director of Bands, and eleven years in Ridgeland where he was the Director of Bands for the Ridgeland Attendance Zone and Ridgeland High School's founding band director. McArthur's bands are consistently recognized for their quality including a tradition of All Superior ratings and 2 State Marching Band Championships for the Ridgeland High School Band. He has served on the Executive Board of the East Central Mississippi Band Directors Association, Mississippi High School Activities Association Legislative Council, the Advisory Board for the National Federation of State High School Associations, and has recently completed a second term on the Mississippi Bandmasters Association Executive. In so doing, McArthur was the first person in 40 years to be elected to the Mississippi board for a second time.

A 1985 graduate of the University of Mississippi, McArthur was a charter member of Memphis Blues Brass Band in 1980, a marching staff member of the 1987 Sky Ryders Drum and Bugle Corps, and percussion caption head and program coordinator for the Southwind Drum and Bugle Corps from 1994-1996. Further, he has been on staff with the International Champion Mississippi Lions All-State Band numerous times, and was percussion instructor the 1986 Florida Bandmasters All-Star Marching Band. His performance experiences include the Tupelo Symphony, Mississippi Symphony Orchestra, Mississippi Symphonic Winds, and Downbeat Jazz Orchestra.

An active clinician, adjudicator, and consultant for bands and events across the country, McArthur is a member of Phi Beta Mu, Mississippi Indoor Association, and is especially honored by his association with Winter Guard International's percussion division. McArthur is the son of Mississippi Hall of Fame Band Directors John and Edythe McArthur. Jay is married to the former Amy Lewis of Quitman, MS. They have two sons, John Thomas, III, and Cadden Moore, and are guarded by the fierce Yorkshire terrier, Lily.

A native of Miami, Florida, Lowell Hollinger earned two degrees from Jackson State University, Jackson, Mississippi: the Bachelor of Science degree in Biology and the Bachelor of Music Degree in Performance. He also earned the Master of Music degree in Clarinet Performance from Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Currently, he is in the final stages of completing his Ph.D. program at the University of Southern Mississippi, Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

Mr. Hollinger is an Instructor of Music and Associate Director of Bands of the world renowned Jackson State University Marching Band "The Sonic Boom of the South." He is also the conductor of the University Band programs premier ensemble the Symphonic Wind Ensemble. Additionally, he regularly serves as a guest conductor and clinician. In April of 2012, Mr. Hollinger secured a $500,000 endowment for the Jackson State University band program which was named in honor of Dr. Lewis Liddell, Sr. As former Director of Bands at Jackson State University; Dr. Liddell was a very influential figure in Mr. Hollinger's life.

Mr. Lowell Hollinger is married to Jasmine C. Hollinger, M.D. and is a member of New Horizon Church International, Jackson, Mississippi. This past October he and his wife welcomed a baby girl they named Kynzie Emeri Hollinger who has become the joy of his life.

Dr. Kelvin Jones is the Assistant Director of Bands at Louisiana State University. His responsibilities include working with the "Golden Band from Tigerland," conducting the Symphony Band, teaching undergraduate conducting, marching band techniques, and directing the Bengal Brass which supports men and women basketball, gymnastics, volleyball programs, and provides numerous other performances in support of LSU athletics.

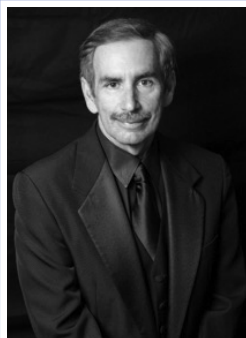

Jones is a 2011 recipient of the Louisiana Music Educators Association's Young Music Educator of the Year, the 2013 recipient of the Baton Rouge Symphony Orchestra's Teacher of Distinction, and the 2014 LSU A.P. Tureaud award recipient for significant contributions to the university. He is the former band director at West Feliciana High School in St. Francisville, Louisiana. At WFHS, he led an active, comprehensive music program that produced numerous award-winning performances at state and national events, including the 2013 United States National Presidential Inauguration Music Festival in Washington DC.

Jones has also presented at state music education conferences across the United States, including Ohio, Texas, and Louisiana Music Educators Associations. He is published in the Instrumentalist magazine (Jan. 2014 and Dec. 2015), an active clinician, and has travelled internationally working with music programs in South America (Chile) and with the LSU marching band in Dublin, Ireland. He is also an active drill designer for high school and university music programs across the country.

He holds degrees in Music from Jackson State University and Louisiana State University. He is a member of the College Band Directors National Association, Kappa Kappa Psi Fraternity Inc., National Association for Music Education, Louisiana Music Educators Association, Louisiana Association of Jazz Educators, HBCU Band Directors Consortium, and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc.

Dr. Kenneth Ozzello is Director of Bands and Professor of Music at The University of Alabama. Dr. Ozzello joined the university faculty in 1989. He holds the Bachelor of Music in Music Education and the Masters of Music in Conducting degrees from West Virginia University; he earned the Doctorate of Education from The University of Alabama. Dr. Ozzello is the conductor of the Alabama Wind Ensemble. The ensemble has performed at national and regional conventions of the American Bandmasters Association, the College Band Directors National Association, the Music Educators National Conference and the Alabama Music Educators Association. In 2012, the ensemble toured Italy performing at numerous historic venues from Rome to Torino. The ensemble has recorded several CDs, including the most recent titled Forbes Plays Forbes, featuring the music of composer Mike Forbes. The Alabama Wind Ensemble has commissioned and premiered dozens of works from composers such as David Maslanka, Donald Grantham, Ira Hearshen, Nigel Clarke, Jim Stephenson and Paul Dooley. In 2012, Dr. Ozzello received the Morris Meyer Award recognizing outstanding contributions to student life at The University of Alabama. Dr. Ozzello holds memberships in the prestigious American Bandmasters Association, the CBDNA, NAFME, Phi Beta Mu and Kappa Kappa Psi. Prior to arriving in Tuscaloosa, Dr. Ozzello served on the staff of the West Virginia University band program. He also spent five years as the director of bands at Jeannette High School in the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania area. Dr. Ozzello heads the graduate wind conducting program at Alabama and maintains a busy national schedule of clinics and guest conducting engagements.
