In 2015 the band placed first at the Next Generation Festival, which included a performance at the Monterey Jazz Festival the following September. In 2015 the band was featured on Barney McClure's CD Show Me! and the Seabreeze Records 2008 release In A Mellow Tone. Most recently the jazz band won the undergraduate Asynchronous Recording category of the 2022 Downbeat Magazine Student Awards based upon work completed during Covid protocols, his final year at CWU. There are over 150 live-recorded YouTube videos of the band, recognized worldwide as some of the strongest examples of the big band literature. Bruya has served on WMEA, OMEA and IAJE boards in both Oregon and Washington, has presented at numerous regional conferences, directed honor bands in New York state, Nevada, and Texas, while in retirement remaining in demand as a clinician and adjudicator throughout the Northwest and beyond. Dr. Mathias Elmer, a native of Switzerland, is the Director of Orchestral Activities and Assistant Professor of Music at Virginia Tech in Blacksburg, Virginia. Prior to this position, he served as Director of Orchestral Activities at Connecticut College in New London and at the University of Memphis Rudi E. Scheidt School of Music. In 2017, he completed his Doctor of Musical Arts degree in orchestral conducting at the University of Memphis under Maestro Pu-Qi Jiang. Further studies in conducting led Dr. Elmer to Michael Stern (USA), Karl Anton Rickenbacher, Johannes Schlaefli (Switzerland), and Mark Ensley (USA), among others. Elmer received his master's degree in orchestral and operatic conducting at the Lucerne University of Applied Sciences and Arts School of Music in Switzerland under Maestro Ralf Weikert. Another focus of his work as a conductor is his passion for works by underrepresented composers, and he has led seminars and given lectures on how to incorporate this repertoire into a University orchestra concert program. Dr. Elmer is the winner of The American Prize in Conducting in the College/University Orchestra division for 2017/2018.

2024 HONOREE

Brad Turner began his music career in 5th grade when he started taking drum lessons from a member of the US Marine Corps Band at Twentynine Palms, California. As the son of a Navy officer, Mr. Turner moved 8 times and attended 10 different schools. During his junior and senior years in high school, the Turner family was stationed in Bethesda, Maryland and Mr. Turner started taking lessons from Dr. Kenneth Krohn. Dr. Krohn was the band and orchestra director at Robert Frost Middle School. During his senior year, Mr. Turner had the unique opportunity to attend high school in the morning and then go to Robert Frost Middle to work with Dr. Krohn and teach his students. This began Mr. Turner's desire to become a music educator.

Mr. Turner enrolled at Arizona State University as a music education major. While at ASU, Mr. Turner participated in the marching band, symphony orchestra, percussion ensemble, and was principal percussionist for the Mesa Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Turner graduated with honors from Arizona State University and moved to the Memphis area. Mr. Turner also holds a Master of Education and an Educational Specialist's in Administration and Supervision degree from Union University.

In July 1999, Mr. Turner was hired as the Director of Bands for Houston Middle School. During his tenure at Houston Middle, Mr. Turner consistently had 300+ students enrolled in various bands including marching band, color guard, percussion ensemble, 3 grade-based bands, honor band, and a jazz band. The bands at Houston Middle consistently received superior ratings and 1st place in multiple local and national festivals and competitions. Performing grade 3 and 4 level music, the HMS Honor Band received straight superior ratings at WTSBOA Concert Festival for 13 consecutive years. In 2012, Mr. Turner was recognized as "Teacher of the Year" for Houston Middle School. After 15 years at Houston Middle, Mr. Turner was asked to help create a new municipal school system in Arlington, Tennessee. In June 2014, Mr. Turner was hired as a district administrator for Arlington Community Schools, where he is currently the Student Information Management Supervisor and PowerSchool Administrator.

Mr. Turner has been very involved with various professional associations, since he began teaching. As a member and past officer of the West Tennessee School Band and Orchestra Association, serving as President from 2008-2010, Mr. Turner has chaired many significant WTSBOA events including, Solo & Ensemble, Concert Festival, and All-West Band and Orchestra Clinic. While serving as an officer, Mr. Turner was instrumental in bringing the All-West Band Clinic and All-West Orchestra Clinic together in the Renasant Convention Center and Cannon Center. By having all students and directors together, this created additional opportunities for students and directors. More students participate in All-West, and directors calibrate and share ideas. Professional development sessions for directors are provided by local music educators, as well as university personnel. He has served as All-West Conference Chair since 2006 through ice storms, multiple site renovations, and COVID-19, all while continuing to provide the students and directors of West Tennessee with a premiere event and venue. Mr. Turner continues to serve as the All-West Convention Chair and manages the All-West Program. Mr. Turner also served as TnMEA All-State Conference Chair from 2015-2021 and is a member of Phi Beta Mu International Bandmaster Fraternity.

Mr. Turner resides in Arlington, Tennessee with his wife Janna, who was the choir director at Houston Middle School. Janna is a former music educator and a retired elementary school administrator. They have three sons, a daughter-in-law, and one grandson. Grant is the choir director at West Collierville Middle School. Bridget is a music educator at Cordova Elementary School. Austin is a manager at an international gaming company. Bryan is a high school senior and an All-State French Horn and All-State choir member who is planning on majoring in music education. His parents, Dr. E.W., and Barbara, are proud of all the work that he has completed on behalf of the students of West Tennessee. Brad and his family believe that all students can be blessed with the love that music education provides.

Dr. Tim Oliver is the new Director of Bands and Professor of Music at the University of Mississippi beginning in July 2023. Previously, he was the Director of Bands and Coordinator of Wind and Percussion Studies at Arkansas State University for 16 years. Dr. Oliver also served as a faculty member at Temple University, the University of Kansas, and as a junior and senior high school band director in Missouri and Florida. He earned degrees from Truman State University and Florida State University.

As an advocate for promoting connections among performance, education, and community, Dr. Oliver is an active guest conductor, clinician, and adjudicator, as well as a researcher with presentations and publications on conducting pedagogy, wind band repertoire, and aesthetic distance. He also believes strongly in servant leadership while working to promote our university and professional communities.

Vigorously cheering the Kansas City Chiefs for over 30 years, watching various sci-fi television shows and movies, and his latest hobby, disc golf, are activities he enjoys outside of music. He also loves spending family time with his wife of 26 years, Rebecca, and his adult children, Benjamin and Gwendolyn.

Dr. John Zastopil is the Director of Bands and tenured associate professor of music at the University of Tennessee-Knoxville. His responsibilities at UT include conducting the University of Tennessee Wind Ensemble, teaching graduate courses in wind studies, guiding the graduate wind conducting program, and providing the administrative leadership for all aspects of the University of Tennessee's diverse and historic band program. Since arriving at UT, Zastopil founded the UT Conducting Workshop and the Volunteer Concert Clinic Festival for concert bands. The UT Wind Ensemble has regained national recognition being accepted to perform at the 2024 CBDNA Southern Division Convention, TMEA Conference, and collaborating with world renowned composers on the commissioning and premieres of multiple works for band. Also, he currently serves the College of Music as the Ensembles and Performance Division Head. Zastopil regularly guest conducts professional and student honor ensembles throughout the United States and has conducted abroad in Europe and Asia. Zastopil's pedigree includes Northwestern University (D.M.A.), where he was the L.K. Skornia endowed fellowship winner; the University of Michigan (M.M.); Baylor University (B.M.E.); and is a former student of the Aspen Music Festival and School.
